City Council that you had documentation exonerating you from the prior sexual harassment allegations. The District has no proof of any such documentation and we are unable to locate any such documentation as requested. We are unable to locate any such documentation as requested. We are unable to locate any such documentation as requested.

If you have any questions about these matters, please direct them to the District's legal counsel, Lisa Copeland. Please also arrange for our meeting through Ms. Copeland and provide her with the documentation we have requested. The District is required by law to promptly conduct and conclude its investigation into these matters and we therefore appreciate your anticipated cooperation in allowing us to review this matter and conclude our investigation at the earliest possible time.

Very Truly Yours,

John Fuschetti, President of the Board of Trustees

Ron Perkins, Chairman of the Personnel Committee
